Alaska Airlines Flight Change Policy: Key Points

Here are the core aspects of Alaska Airlines' policy on changing flights:

1. No Change Fees for Most Fares

Alaska Airlines does not charge a change fee for most ticket types, including Main and First Class fares. You can change your flight without penalty—you'll only need to pay the fare difference if the new flight is more expensive.

2. Saver Fare Restrictions

Saver Fares, Alaska's most basic and budget-friendly option, cannot be changed after the 24-hour cancellation window. These tickets are non-changeable and non-refundable beyond the risk-free period.

3. 24-Hour Cancellation/Change Policy

If you book a flight and need to make changes within 24 hours, you can cancel or modify your booking for free, regardless of fare type.

4. Same-Day Flight Changes

Alaska Airlines allows same-day flight changes for a fee of $25 to $50, depending on the route and fare class. This service is subject to availability and must be requested on the day of departure.

5. Changing Flights Online

You can change your Alaska Airlines flight easily via the website:

- Visit www.alaskaair.com
- Click on "Manage Trip"

- Enter your confirmation code and last name
- Select your trip and click “Change”
- Pay the fare difference if applicable

6. Phone Support Available

For those who prefer direct support or need help with complex changes:

Call Alaska Airlines Customer Service at 1-844-507-0130

A representative will guide you through the process and answer any questions.
